About QUT

QUT is a major Australian university with a global outlook and a 'real world' focus. We are one of the nation's fastest growing research universities and our courses are in high demand.

We are an ambitious and collaborative institution that seeks to equip our students and graduates with the skills they will need in an increasingly disrupted and challenged world. We are transforming the student experience we offer our 50,000 students and we place a premium on the international and national accreditation of our various professional degrees.

Our internationally award-winning Science and Engineering Centre is home to The Cube, acknowledged as one of the world's largest digital interactive learning and display spaces. QUT established the world's first Creative Industries Faculty, and we invest heavily in collaborative learning and interdisciplinary research environments, including the $95M Education Precinct.

Further information about QUT can be obtained from the website at www.qut.edu.au.

Our Vision

QUT's Blueprint 6 is our institutional strategic plan. The Blueprint formalises QUT's ambitions and declares our strong sense of purpose which is to provide transformative education and research relevant to our communities. It provides a framework and strategies to enable QUT to realise our vision to be the university for the real world and identifies the following priorities:

- support aspiration and inclusion
- encourage creativity and entrepreneurship
- embrace digital transformation and technology
- embed principles of health and wellbeing
- support Indigenous Australian engagement, success and empowerment
- enable professional engagement and ethical leadership and,
- focus on the environment and sustainability

Aligned to and supporting our vision are the QUT Values. These Values highlight what makes QUT distinct and successful. Providing a compass for our decisions, actions and behaviours and strengthening our community.

QUT Values

- Ambition
- Curiosity
- Innovation
- Integrity
- Inclusiveness

About the Position

The Marketing Content Coordinator is responsible for coordinating and developing faculty marketing content, including course and study guides, and ensuring content supports marketing campaigns and objectives and is always accurate and current.

This position reports to the Faculty Marketing Partner for supervision, workload management and for Performance Planning and Review (PPR).

Key responsibilities include:

- Coordinating the marketing and course content for online (on QUT website) and offline study guides and materials for faculties.
- Developing and creating content for print and digital channels (course description, faculty and school key marketing selling points, entry programs, student and graduate testimonials etc).
- Working with other marketing staff to ensure all content supporting marketing campaigns and objectives are always accurate and current.
- Establishing and nurturing relationships with the QUT community to maximise the effectiveness of our whole-of-organisation distributed model across online and offline promotion materials for courses, schools and the faculty.
- Assist with the development of recruitment materials related to, future student journey, course content and events (including Open Day, TSXPO, career markets and seminars).
- Compliance with health and safety policies, procedures, hazard reporting and safe work practices.

To ensure job flexibility the successful appointee may be required to:

- perform any other duties as nominated by the University consistent with the relevant classification descriptors detailed in the Enterprise Agreement. Staff undertaking any new duties will receive training;
- participate in job rotation or multiskilling in consultation with their supervisor;
- work across campuses.

Type of appointment

This appointment will be offered on an ongoing, full-time basis.

Location

Kelvin Grove campus.

Selection Criteria

1. Education, training and/or relevant experience equivalent to a degree in online communication, marketing, and/or online editing and publishing, with at least four years subsequent relevant work experience.
2. Demonstrated ability to write and curate content, including good knowledge of web standards, accessibility and usability (including SEO skills).
3. Excellent interpersonal, presentation and influencing skills with demonstrated experience in consulting and collaborating with both internal and external stakeholders at a variety of levels.
4. Record of success in coordinating web content from a variety of sources, ensuring it is relevant and timely, with a demonstrated commitment to continuous improvement.
5. Demonstrated communication skills including the ability to prepare clear and concise submissions, reports, plans and complex correspondence.

Remuneration and Benefits

The classification for this position is Higher Education Worker Level 7 (HEW7) which has an annual remuneration range of $101,660 to $111,203 pa. Which is inclusive of an annual salary range of $86,889 to $95,045 pa and 17% superannuation.

In July 2020 QUT staff voted in favour of a variation to its Enterprise Agreements. The variations were approved by the Fair Work Commission in August 2020.

The variation impacts leave loading (for new staff no loading will be paid or accrued during the period the variation is in effect), salary increases (the salary increase which was due to occur in the first full pay period of December 2020 has been deferred until the first full pay period of December 2021) and superannuation (superannuation will be paid to staff as though the salary increase which would have been paid in December 2020 has taken effect and, subject to the rules of the superannuation fund, a defined benefit member will continue to make contributions in alignment with the contributions made by the University). A link to the variation is here.

Beyond personal and professional fulfilment, a career at QUT brings a broad range of tangible benefits. With competitive remuneration including superannuation, the University offers real and generous benefits.

QUT is a high quality and flexible organisation that is proud of its excellent employment conditions which include but are not limited to:

- Reduced working year scheme
- Parental leave provisions
- Study support encompassing leave and financial assistance
- Comprehensive professional development
- Salary Packaging
