About QUT

QUT is a major Australian university with a global outlook and a 'real world' focus. We are one of the nation's fastest growing research universities and our courses are in high demand.

We are an ambitious and collaborative institution that seeks to equip our students and graduates with the skills they will need in an increasingly disrupted and challenged world. We are transforming the student experience we offer our 50,000 students and we place a premium on the international and national accreditation of our various professional degrees.

Our internationally award-winning Science and Engineering Centre is home to The Cube, acknowledged as one of the world's largest digital interactive learning and display spaces. QUT established the world's first Creative Industries Faculty, and we invest heavily in collaborative learning and interdisciplinary research environments, including the $95M Education Precinct.

Further information about QUT can be obtained from the website at www.qut.edu.au.

Our Vision

QUT's Blueprint 6 is our institutional strategic plan. The Blueprint formalises QUT's ambitions and declares our strong sense of purpose which is to provide transformative education and research relevant to our communities. It provides a framework and strategies to enable QUT to realise our vision to be the university for the real world and identifies the following priorities:

- support aspiration and inclusion
- encourage creativity and entrepreneurship
- embrace digital transformation and technology
- embed principles of health and wellbeing
- support Indigenous Australian engagement, success and empowerment
- enable professional engagement and ethical leadership and,
- focus on the environment and sustainability

Aligned to and supporting our vision are the QUT Values. These Values highlight what makes QUT distinct and successful. Providing a compass for our decisions, actions and behaviours and strengthening our community.

QUT Values

- Ambition
- Curiosity
- Innovation
- Integrity
- Inclusiveness

About the Position

The Brand Centre Communications and Training Officer works with the Brand Centre Coordinator to promote the use of the Brand Centre to ensure the platform's ongoing uptake by university stakeholders.

This position reports to the Brand Centre Coordinator for supervision, workload management and for Performance Planning and Review (PPR).

Key responsibilities include:

- Promote the use of the Brand Centre by developing communications, updates and information sessions for the Brand Centre community and all users.
- Facilitate the Brand Centre user group.
- Manage and maintain the QUT Brand content and Support content.
- Develop training materials.
- Delivery of training sessions for Brand Centre user groups.
- Develop training videos.
- Develop communications including email newsletters and digital workplace updates.
- Support the Brand Centre Coordinator with updates, uploads and improvements on the platform.
- Liaise with user groups throughout the university including assisting the Brand Centre Coordinator with development and implementation of training materials to support buy-in across the system.
- Maintain a good working knowledge of the brand centre platform including working with the Brand and Creative Studio team on updates and creation of materials and templates.
- Maintain an understanding of QUT's brand.
- Compliance with health and safety policies, procedures, hazard reporting and safe work practices.

To ensure job flexibility the successful appointee may be required to:

- perform any other duties as nominated by the University consistent with the relevant classification descriptors detailed in the Enterprise Agreement. Staff undertaking any new duties will receive training;
- participate in job rotation or multiskilling in consultation with their supervisor;
- work across campuses.

Type of appointment

This appointment will be offered on a fixed-term, full-time basis for 12 months.

Location

Kelvin Grove campus.

Selection Criteria

1. Education, training and/or relevant experience equivalent to a degree in marketing combined with subsequent relevant work experience.
2. Excellent written communication and interpersonal skills including the ability to tailor communication as appropriate to the audience and platform.
3. Demonstrated ability to plan, organise and prioritise workloads in order to meet deadlines and to produce work with a high level of quality and attention to detail.
4. Excellent interpersonal, presentation and influencing skills that demonstrate experience in building strong working relationships across organisational areas.
5. Demonstrated ability to conduct training and information sessions.

As outlined in the Change Management and Implementation Plan, Selection Criterion 1 will not be assessed as part of this selection process.

Remuneration and Benefits

The classification for this position is Higher Education Worker Level 6 (HEW6) which has an annual remuneration range of $92,402 to $100,051 pa. Which is inclusive of an annual salary range of $78,747 to $85,266 pa and 17% superannuation.

In July 2020 QUT staff voted in favour of a variation to its Enterprise Agreements. The variations were approved by the Fair Work Commission in August 2020.

The variation impacts leave loading (for new staff no loading will be paid or accrued during the period the variation is in effect), salary increases (the salary increase which was due to occur in the first full pay period of December 2020 has been deferred until the first full pay period of December 2021) and superannuation (superannuation will be paid to staff as though the salary increase which would have been paid in December 2020 has taken effect and, subject to the rules of the superannuation fund, a defined benefit member will continue to make contributions in alignment with the contributions made by the University). A link to the variation is here.

Beyond personal and professional fulfilment, a career at QUT brings a broad range of tangible benefits. With competitive remuneration including superannuation, the University offers real and generous benefits.

QUT is a high quality and flexible organisation that is proud of its excellent employment conditions which include but are not limited to:

- Reduced working year scheme
- Parental leave provisions
- Study support encompassing leave and financial assistance
- Comprehensive professional development
- Salary Packaging

Further benefits can be found at the Life at QUT page.
