CHANCELLERY DIVISION

About QUT

QUT is a major Australian university with a global outlook and a 'real world' focus. We are one of the nation's fastest growing research universities and our courses are in high demand.

We are an ambitious and collaborative institution that seeks to equip our students and graduates with the skills they will need in an increasingly disrupted and challenged world. We are transforming the student experience we offer our 50,000 students and we place a premium on the international and national accreditation of our various professional degrees.

Our internationally award-winning Science and Engineering Centre is home to The Cube, acknowledged as one of the world's largest digital interactive learning and display spaces. QUT established the world's first Creative Industries Faculty, and we invest heavily in collaborative learning and interdisciplinary research environments, including the $95M Education Precinct.

Further information about QUT can be obtained from the website at www.qut.edu.au.

Our Vision

QUT's Blueprint 6 is our institutional strategic plan. The Blueprint formalises QUT's ambitions and declares our strong sense of purpose which is to provide transformative education and research relevant to our communities. It provides a framework and strategies to enable QUT to realise our vision to be the university for the real world and identifies the following priorities:

- support aspiration and inclusion
- encourage creativity and entrepreneurship
- embrace digital transformation and technology
- embed principles of health and wellbeing
- support Indigenous Australian engagement, success and empowerment
- enable professional engagement and ethical leadership and,
- focus on the environment and sustainability

Aligned to and supporting our vision are the QUT Values. These Values highlight what makes QUT distinct and successful. Providing a compass for our decisions, actions and behaviours and strengthening our community.

QUT Values

- Ambition
- Curiosity
- Innovation
- Integrity
- Inclusiveness

About the Chancellery Division

As well as professional services provided to the university community, the Department is responsible for a variety of corporate communication functions and oversees relevant policies, protocols and governance arrangements.

About the Position

The International Marketing Officer works with the International Student Recruitment team to implement, monitor and review international marketing strategies with a focus on attraction and retention of international students.

This position reports to the International Student Recruitment and Communications Manager for supervision, workload management and for Performance Planning and Review (PPR).

Key responsibilities include:

- Support the International Student Recruitment team to coordinate and promote events, orientation and other international engagement activities in collaboration with other areas of the university.
- Collect data and market intelligence to inform strategic planning.
- Participate in the development and implementation of international marketing plans.
- Provide timely response to enquiries from prospective students and key stakeholders.
- Provide support for a range of international marketing activities and events designed to promote the university.
- Compliance with health and safety policies, procedures, hazard reporting and safe work practices.

To ensure job flexibility the successful appointee may be required to:

- perform any other duties as nominated by the University consistent with the relevant classification descriptors detailed in the Enterprise Agreement. Staff undertaking any new duties will receive training;
- participate in job rotation or multiskilling in consultation with their supervisor;
- work across campuses.

Type of appointment

This appointment will be offered on a fixed-term, full-time basis for 12 months.

Location

Kelvin Grove campus.

Selection Criteria

1. Education, training and/or relevant experience equivalent to the completion of a degree in conjunction with relevant experience.
2. Demonstrated effective interpersonal skills, including the ability to communicate effectively with those from culturally diverse backgrounds.
3. Demonstrated strong written communication skills with the ability to draft a range of high quality written material including reports, correspondence, presentations, plans and high impact marketing and promotional materials across optimal channels.
4. Demonstrated knowledge and understanding of web and digital media platforms and content.
5. Ability to problem solve, analyse and use initiative in a complex and changing environment to achieve workable solutions.
6. Demonstrated ability to work effectively as part of a team to achieve team based outcomes and to encourage staff to achieve high quality business outcomes.

Remuneration and Benefits

The classification for this position is Higher Education Worker Level 6 (HEW6) which has an annual remuneration range of $92,402 to $100,051 pa. Which is inclusive of an annual salary range of $78,747 to $85,266 pa and 17% superannuation.

In July 2020 QUT staff voted in favour of a variation to its Enterprise Agreements. The variations were approved by the Fair Work Commission in August 2020.

The variation impacts leave loading (for new staff no loading will be paid or accrued during the period the variation is in effect), salary increases (the salary increase which was due to occur in the first full pay period of December 2020 has been deferred until the first full pay period of December 2021) and superannuation (superannuation will be paid to staff as though the salary increase which would have been paid in December 2020 has taken effect and, subject to the rules of the superannuation fund, a defined benefit member will continue to make contributions in alignment with the contributions made by the University). A link to the variation is here.

Beyond personal and professional fulfilment, a career at QUT brings a broad range of tangible benefits. With competitive remuneration including superannuation, the University offers real and generous benefits.

QUT is a high quality and flexible organisation that is proud of its excellent employment conditions which include but are not limited to:

- Reduced working year scheme
- Parental leave provisions
- Study support encompassing leave and financial assistance
- Comprehensive professional development
- Salary Packaging
