CHANCELLERY DIVISION

About QUT

QUT is a major Australian university with a global outlook and a 'real world' focus. We are one of the nation's fastest growing research universities and our courses are in high demand.

We are an ambitious and collaborative institution that seeks to equip our students and graduates with the skills they will need in an increasingly disrupted and challenged world. We are transforming the student experience we offer our 50,000 students and we place a premium on the international and national accreditation of our various professional degrees.

Our internationally award-winning Science and Engineering Centre is home to The Cube, acknowledged as one of the world's largest digital interactive learning and display spaces. QUT established the world's first Creative Industries Faculty, and we invest heavily in collaborative learning and interdisciplinary research environments, including the $95M Education Precinct.

Further information about QUT can be obtained from the website at www.qut.edu.au.

Our Vision

QUT's Blueprint 6 is our institutional strategic plan. The Blueprint formalises QUT's ambitions and declares our strong sense of purpose which is to provide transformative education and research relevant to our communities. It provides a framework and strategies to enable QUT to realise our vision to be the university for the real world and identifies the following priorities:

- support aspiration and inclusion
- encourage creativity and entrepreneurship
- embrace digital transformation and technology
- embed principles of health and wellbeing
- support Indigenous Australian engagement, success and empowerment
- enable professional engagement and ethical leadership and,
- focus on the environment and sustainability

Aligned to and supporting our vision are the QUT Values. These Values highlight what makes QUT distinct and successful. Providing a compass for our decisions, actions and behaviours and strengthening our community.

QUT Values

- Ambition
- Curiosity
- Innovation
- Integrity
- Inclusiveness

About Marketing and Communication

The Marketing and Communication Department is responsible for:

- Building and protecting QUT's brand and reputation
- Engaging and recruiting future students
- Ensuring communications from QUT are effective and of high professional standard.

As well as professional services provided to the university community, the Department is responsible for a variety of corporate communication functions and oversees relevant policies, protocols and governance arrangements.

About the Position

The Marketing Consultant is a key liaison between the faculty and the Marketing and Communication Department, developing marketing campaigns and coordinating the full range of communication activities aimed at supporting the faculty in achieving its student recruitment goals.

The Marketing Consultant oversees the implementation and evaluation of the reputation and recruitment campaigns and plans for the faculty.

This position reports to the Faculty Marketing Partner for supervision, workload management and for Performance Planning and Review (PPR).

Key responsibilities include:

- Provide strategic advice, develop and implement marketing and advertising campaigns and strategies for the purpose of furthering the reputation and future student engagement and domestic supporting the student recruitment goals of the faculty.
- Manage and monitor the faculty marketing and advertising campaign budgets.
- Develop and maintain excellent working relationships with internal and external stakeholders to deliver effective campaigns.
- Coordinate the participation of the faculty in recruitment events and QUT-wide promotional activities (e.g. QUT Open Day, TSXPO).
- Define and manage the course and marketing content needed for the recruitment campaigns in liaison with the Marketing Content Officer, the web team, student recruitment and the digital marketing team.
- Be accountable for ensuring communications comply with the Competition and Consumers Act, SPAM Act and ESOS Act.
- Compliance with health and safety policies, procedures, hazard reporting and safe work practices.

To ensure job flexibility the successful appointee may be required to:

- perform any other duties as nominated by the University consistent with the relevant classification descriptors detailed in the Enterprise Agreement. Staff undertaking any new duties will receive training;

- participate in job rotation or multiskilling in consultation with their supervisor;
- work across campuses.

Type of appointment

This appointment will be offered on an ongoing, full-time basis

Location

Kelvin Grove campus.

Selection Criteria
