About QUT

QUT is a major Australian university with a global outlook and a 'real world' focus. We are one of the nation's fastest growing research universities and our courses are in high demand.

We are an ambitious and collaborative institution that seeks to equip our students and graduates with the skills they will need in an increasingly disrupted and challenged world. We are transforming the student experience we offer our 50,000 students and we place a premium on the international and national accreditation of our various professional degrees.

Our internationally award-winning Science and Engineering Centre is home to The Cube, acknowledged as one of the world's largest digital interactive learning and display spaces. QUT established the world's first Creative Industries Faculty, and we invest heavily in collaborative learning and interdisciplinary research environments, including the $95M Education Precinct.

Further information about QUT can be obtained from the website at www.qut.edu.au.

Our Vision

QUT's Blueprint 6 is our institutional strategic plan. The Blueprint formalises QUT's ambitions and declares our strong sense of purpose which is to provide transformative education and research relevant to our communities. It provides a framework and strategies to enable QUT to realise our vision to be the university for the real world and identifies the following priorities:

- support aspiration and inclusion
- encourage creativity and entrepreneurship
- embrace digital transformation and technology
- embed principles of health and wellbeing
- support Indigenous Australian engagement, success and empowerment
- enable professional engagement and ethical leadership and,
- focus on the environment and sustainability

Aligned to and supporting our vision are the QUT Values. These Values highlight what makes QUT distinct and successful. Providing a compass for our decisions, actions and behaviours and strengthening our community.

QUT Values

- Ambition
- Curiosity
- Innovation
- Integrity
- Inclusiveness

About the Chancellery Division

The Vice-Chancellor and President is responsible to Council for providing leadership to the University and for the academic, financial and administrative functions of the University. The Vice-Chancellor is also QUT's chief representative on external forums.

The Vice-Chancellor leads the Chancellery Division which includes the Business Development and International Portfolios, Indigenous Strategy, Government Relations and Policy, Assurance, Risk and Integrity Services, Marketing and Communication, and Finance Business Solutions.

The Office of the Vice-Chancellor provides support and manages the business of the Vice-Chancellor and Chancellery Division. About Marketing and Communication

The Marketing and Communication Department is responsible for:

- Building and protecting QUT's brand and reputation
- Engaging and recruiting future students
- Ensuring communications from QUT are effective and of high professional standard.

As well as professional services provided to the university community, the Department is responsible for a variety of corporate communication functions and oversees relevant policies, protocols and governance arrangements.

About the Position

The Web Content Officer is responsible for sourcing, creating and maintaining online content that supports business and user goals, and aligns with the site guidelines and overall user experience.

This position reports to the Web Content Coordinator for supervision, workload management and for Performance Planning and Review (PPR).

Key responsibilities include:

- Liaising with content owners and contributors to ensure web content follows a user-centred design approach and meets QUT's web standards, corporate identity, online style guide, usability guidelines and legislative requirements for accessibility and usability.
- Creating and editing original web content including engaging copy, photography, video and other rich media, and publishing updates to the web in a timely manner.
- Monitoring workflow and identifying opportunities to simplify updating processes while ensuring quality.
- Work across areas of Marketing and Communication as well as with web professionals in faculties and divisions throughout QUT to ensure site content supports marketing campaigns and objectives.
- Using analytics software to report on content conversions and to provide continuous improvement to QUT's web presence.
- Compliance with health and safety policies, procedures, hazard reporting and safe work practices.

To ensure job flexibility the successful appointee may be required to:

- perform any other duties as nominated by the University consistent with the relevant classification descriptors detailed in the Enterprise Agreement. Staff undertaking any new duties will receive training;
- participate in job rotation or multiskilling in consultation with their supervisor;
- work across campuses.

Type of appointment

This appointment will be offered on a fixed-term, full-time basis for 12 months.

Location

Kelvin Grove campus.

Selection Criteria

1. Education, training and/or relevant experience equivalent to a degree in online communication, marketing, or online editing and publishing.
2. Demonstrated ability to write and curate content for the web, including sound knowledge of web standards, accessibility and usability.
3. Demonstrated knowledge of user-centred design processes supported by skills of web analytics and user journey optimisation.
4. Demonstrated excellent interpersonal, presentation and influencing skills that demonstrate experience in liaising with internal and external stakeholders at a variety of levels.
5. Demonstrated practical understanding of web development and web design techniques.
6. Proven experience in using Squiz Matrix or another enterprise content management system.

As outlined in the Change Management and Implementation Plan, Selection Criterion 1 will not be assessed as part of this selection process.

Remuneration and Benefits

The classification for this position is Higher Education Worker Level 6 (HEW6) which has an annual remuneration range of $92,402 to $100,051 pa. Which is inclusive of an annual salary range of $78,747 to $85,266 pa and 17% superannuation.

In July 2020 QUT staff voted in favour of a variation to its Enterprise Agreements. The variations were approved by the Fair Work Commission in August 2020.

The variation impacts leave loading (for new staff no loading will be paid or accrued during the period the variation is in effect), salary increases (the salary increase which was due to occur in the first full pay period of December 2020 has been deferred until the first full pay period of December 2021) and superannuation (superannuation will be paid to staff as though the salary increase which would have been paid in December 2020 has taken effect and, subject to the rules of the superannuation fund, a defined benefit member will continue to make contributions in alignment with the contributions made by the University). A link to the variation is here.

Beyond personal and professional fulfilment, a career at QUT brings a broad range of tangible benefits. With competitive remuneration including superannuation, the University offers real and generous benefits.

QUT is a high quality and flexible organisation that is proud of its excellent employment conditions which include but are not limited to:

- Reduced working year scheme
- Parental leave provisions
- Study support encompassing leave and financial assistance
- Comprehensive professional development
- Salary Packaging

Further benefits can be found at the Life at QUT page.
